

Cris Criswell Bio:

As a boy, Cris Criswell, planned to become a pro football player. Polio left him needing braces and crutches to walk. An ordained minister, Cris integrated his athletic desires with ministry by working with Bretton Woods Adaptive, Inc, a year-round adaptive sports and recreation program. He volunteered for several years, ran the program for 3 and is the first President of the Board of Directors. Cris thrives on skiing and guiding differently abled persons in a courageous and joyful healing process.
