Dear Friends in Music and Healing:

This Fall holds a particularly exciting launch for Music Therapists, Medical Musicians and Musicians who play in healing spaces!

We'd like to invite you to join us and be a part of an extraordinary event on September 29, 2013 at 3:00pm to celebrate Music and Wellness throughout our great city.

In celebration of its 75th anniversary, Celebrity Series of Boston will be presenting "Play me, I'm Yours," bringing 75 painted pianos to 75 locations on the streets of Boston, Cambridge and Somerville.

In recognition of the unique strength of Boston's healthcare and cultural communities, we're thrilled to announce that Sunday September 29 will be designated "Music and Wellness Day," with a city wide "flash mob for health" at 3:00 p.m.

We invite pianists and other instrumentalists dedicated to music and healing to make a joyful sound all over the city and to spread the word about Music and Wellness in your community.
